

EDR Organization's Profile

A1. legal status summary

EDR was officially registered as a non-governmental organization (NGO) according to the Sudanese Voluntary Work Act in Khartoum by HAC (Humanitarian Assistance Commission) in the year 2021. This registration is renewed annually as per prescribed procedures. According to the law, EDR has an approved constitution, article of association, and internal finance and procurement rules. Its organizational set up is formed by the Board of Directors as a supreme authority and the executive body that implements plans according to the mandate and availed resources within the specified geographical area of operations.

A2.EDR Background and Rationale:

Eli-koro for Development and Reconstruction (EDR) is a Sudanese NGO registered as a national voluntary charitable humanitarian non-governmental organization founded by Sudanese youth and women volunteers, who work in humanitarian and development domain. The creation of this organization is inspired by a feeling among this group that something must be done to mitigate the sufferings of needy communities by time of the eruption of the crisis in 2003. EDR was established in 2021, and it was officially registered with the humanitarian aid commission (HAC) as a local non-governmental organization that provide relief, development assistance and to advocate and promotion human rights principles.

EDR is a non-religious, non-political and non-profit –making organization, whose vision is to promote “Peace, Unity Development, women rights and Community Empowerment across the country. EDR has been able to gaining sufficient community’s confidence that would enable it to smoothly implement its future project and program activities. In addition to that, the organization has competent, and experienced staff with a goodwill in Some States and well-equipped coordination office in Port Sudan. Accordingly, the present geographical area of operations for the organization in Sudan includes, El Fasher , El Geneina

A3.Vision

Eil-Koro for Development and Reconstruction (EDR) envisions a world where all individuals live in dignity, security, and prosperity. We strive to foster sustainable development, social justice, and post-conflict reconstruction, ensuring that poverty is eradicated and communities are empowered to achieve lasting progress.

A4. Mission

EDR is committed to driving transformative change by implementing sustainable development and reconstruction initiatives in Sudan and beyond. We work to alleviate poverty, promote social justice, and enhance community resilience through strategic partnerships, advocacy, and capacity-building programs that empower individuals and institutions.

A5.EDR Objectives

1. Promote economic growth, entrepreneurship, and livelihood opportunities to reduce poverty and enhance self-sufficiency.
2. Support the rebuilding of infrastructure, housing, and essential services to restore stability and improve living conditions.
3. Advocate for equality, inclusion, and the protection of marginalized communities, ensuring access to fundamental rights and freedoms.
4. Strengthen knowledge, skills, and leadership through training programs, vocational education, and institutional support.
5. Enhance sustainable agricultural practices, improve food production, and address hunger through community-driven solutions.
6. Provide emergency relief, support recovery efforts, and implement disaster risk reduction strategies to build community resilience.
7. Promote conservation, sustainable resource management, and climate adaptation initiatives to safeguard the environment for future generations.

A6.EDR Focus Areas

1.Economic Empowerment & Livelihoods

Enhancing entrepreneurship, financial inclusion, and employment opportunities.

2.Reconstruction & Infrastructure Development

Restoring critical infrastructure, housing, and public services.

3. Human Rights & Social Equity

Strengthening legal frameworks, gender equality, and advocacy for marginalized groups.

4. Education & Skill Development

Expanding access to quality education, vocational training, and leadership programs.

5. Health & Well-being

Improving healthcare systems, clean water access, and sanitation services.

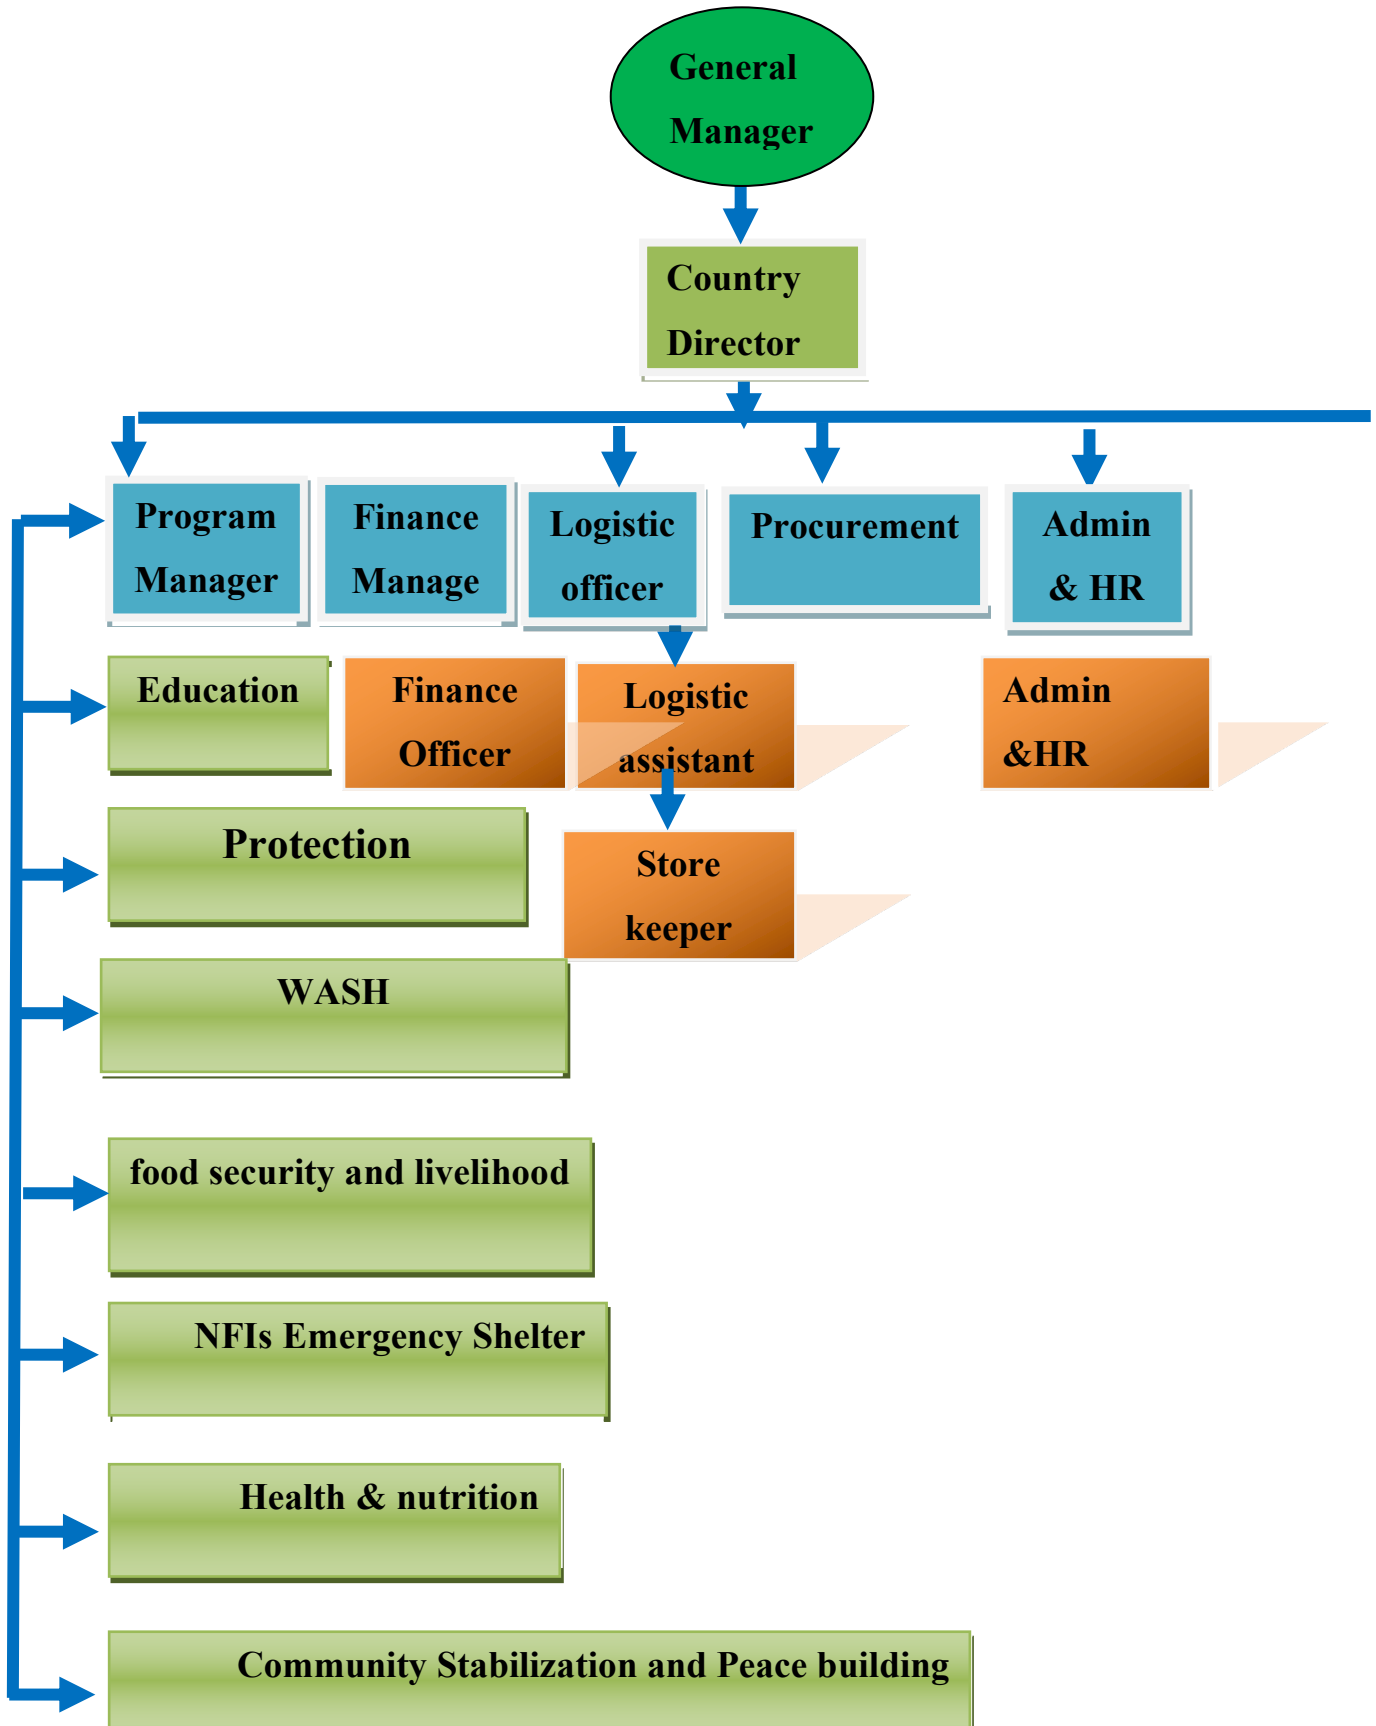

6. Food Security & Sustainable Agriculture

Developing resilient food systems and supporting sustainable farming practices.

7. Crisis Response & Humanitarian Assistance

Delivering aid, rebuilding communities, and strengthening emergency preparedness

A7. EDR Staffing and Management Structure.

A8.Our Donors and Partnerships.

The Organization works in the following programs:

- 1- Governmental Bodies such as Ministry of Agriculture. Education, Health, Animal Resource, Social Affair and welfare, Water cooperation, Humanitarian Aid Commission (HAC)
- 2- HDPO

A9.EDR approach on defending dignity and fighting poverty

A10.EDR Values and Accountability Principles professionalism

EDR is conducting its operation with a degree of professionalism, impartiality, neutrality and ensuring humanitarian principles are correctly followed and abided by throughout its project and program interventions. believes that citizens have a right to hold governments and institutions accountable, expecting them to respect their rights and comply with their policies and regulations that coming down from their representative bodies. Likewise, we believe that non-governmental organizations should be accountable to the communities with which they work, including partner organizations, and from whom we have their full support.

A11. EDR Community Empowerment and Commitment

EDR Organization Sudan believes that given timely& appropriate support for all disaster affected communities have an inherent ability to pull themselves out of crises. Therefore, the approach adopted when implementing our programs is fully participatory; in which ideas from the affected communities form the basic foundation of our planning, design, implementation, monitoring and evaluation of all initiatives. We also expect full commitment to these values from our staff, partners and targeted beneficiaries.

A12. Management set-up:

The Board of Directors

EDR board of directors is the organization's governing body, elected by the members at an annual general meeting. All members are responsible for gaining a basic understanding and initiating action in support of ' EDR mission, goals and programs. This includes assisting in expanding EDR - Sudan's outreach and increasing its visibility and donor support. All board members are volunteers and serve without compensation.

A13. EDR Policy's

1. HR Policy
2. Code of conduct
3. Program policy
4. Human Resources policy
5. Finance Policy
6. protection-policy
7. Gender Policy
8. Procurement Policy

A14.Coordination and cooperation.

EDR UN Portal Account

A15.Contact Details

A16.Achievements